

Community news

Published November 16, 2009

ECU program to address water resources

Faculty in the Department of Geography at East Carolina University will present, "Water, Water Everywhere, Or Is It?" from 6-7:30 p.m. Tuesday in Rivers West Building, Room 205. Faculty will draw from ongoing research to address the natural and social dimensions of water resources, from the local to the global scale. The event, hosted by the ECU student organization GeoClub, is being held in celebration of National Geography Awareness Week. For more information, contact Dr. Derek Alderman at 328-4013 or aldermand@ecu.edu.

Job-loss support group schedules meeting

The Pink Slip Society, a support group for those experiencing pending or actual job loss and looking for a place to network with others, will meet from 7-8:30 p.m. Tuesday and from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Wednesday at 103-A Commerce St. Call Debi Levine at 412-3756 or Tammy Whitten at 531-3703 for more information.

Applications for Toys for Tots recipients taken

The Churches Outreach Network will accept applications for Toys for Tots from 6-8 p.m. Tuesday in the study room at Sheppard Memorial Library. Children must be younger than 18 and applications must be accompanied with a copy of the birth certificate. Applications are available online at www.con2007.org. For more information, call 902-4137.

Holiday dance to be held at Rock Springs Center

The Couples' Dance Club will hold a holiday dance from 8-11 p.m. Friday at Rock Springs Center. Chuck Eatmon will provide music and hors d'oeuvres will be served at 8:45 p.m. Dress is semi-formal. The cost is $60 per couple; $25 per couple for members. Call Hazel and Jarvis Tripp at 355-1793.

Winterville Ruritan Bingo to benefit food banks

The Winterville Ruritan Club will hold Bingo games from 7-9 p.m. Saturday. The Club is at the corner of Church and Sylvania streets across from A.G. Cox Middle School in Winterville. All funds raised will benefit food banks in Pitt County. For more information, call 321-6700.

Toy drive to serve hospitalized children

Beau's Buddies Cancer Fund is holding a drive to collect toys for children in the hospital. The toys will ride in the Greenville Christmas Parade on Dec. 5, and then be taken to the hospital. Toys may be dropped off by Dec. 3 at Rob's Hydraulics, 7765 Pitt St., Grimesland or at David Vaughn Construction, 1025 Director Court. Call 714-5611 or 321-7290.

Reindeer Dash for Cash fundraiser scheduled

The fifth annual Reindeer Dash for Cash is planned for 1 p.m. Dec. 6 with 5K and 10-mile runs at the Greenville Town Common. Registration is from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Proceeds will benefit scholarships from the Captain Christopher Cash Memorial Foundation. For more information, visit www.ReindeerDashForCash.org.

(c) 2009 Cox Newspapers, Inc. - The Daily Reflector